

Leading from the Heart:

15 Character Traits of a 21st Century Leader

A leader is patient. He is not passive, but gives people the time to do things right.

A leader is kind. She is considerate.

A leader is not jealous. He celebrates everyone's victories.

A leader is not boastful. She shares the credit.

A leader is not vain. He values others.

A leader does not dishonor others. She treats everyone with respect.

A leader is not self-seeking. He builds up the people around him.

A leader is not easily angered. She creates a safe fail and try again zone.

A leader keeps no record of wrongs. He forgives.

A leader does not delight in evil. She strives for the greater good.

A leader rejoices in the truth. He is transparent.

A leader protects. She stands up for what is right, the organization, her team, and herself.

A leader trusts. He believes in his people.

A leader hopes. She does not give in to negativity.

A leader perseveres. He keeps moving forward.

Adapted from 1 Corinthians 13:4-7

©2011 Bryson R. Payne, Ph.D.

brysonpayne.com

twitter.com/brysonpayne

Leading from the Heart:

15 Character Traits of a 21st Century Leader

A leader is patient. He is not passive, but gives people the time to do things right.

A leader is kind. She is considerate.

A leader is not jealous. He celebrates everyone's victories.

A leader is not boastful. She shares the credit.

A leader is not vain. He values others.

A leader does not dishonor others. She treats everyone with respect.

A leader is not self-seeking. He builds up the people around him.

A leader is not easily angered. She creates a safe fail and try again zone.

A leader keeps no record of wrongs. He forgives.

A leader does not delight in evil. She strives for the greater good.

A leader rejoices in the truth. He is transparent.

A leader protects. She stands up for what is right, the organization, her team, and herself.

A leader trusts. He believes in his people.

A leader hopes. She does not give in to negativity.

A leader perseveres. He keeps moving forward.

Adapted from 1 Corinthians 13:4-7

©2011 Bryson R. Payne, Ph.D.

brysonpayne.com

twitter.com/brysonpayne

Leading from the Heart:

15 Character Traits of a 21st Century Leader

A leader is patient. He is not passive, but gives people the time to do things right.

A leader is kind. She is considerate.

A leader is not jealous. He celebrates everyone's victories.

A leader is not boastful. She shares the credit.

A leader is not vain. He values others.

A leader does not dishonor others. She treats everyone with respect.

A leader is not self-seeking. He builds up the people around him.

A leader is not easily angered. She creates a safe fail and try again zone.

A leader keeps no record of wrongs. He forgives.

A leader does not delight in evil. She strives for the greater good.

A leader rejoices in the truth. He is transparent.

A leader protects. She stands up for what is right, the organization, her team, and herself.

A leader trusts. He believes in his people.

A leader hopes. She does not give in to negativity.

A leader perseveres. He keeps moving forward.

Adapted from 1 Corinthians 13:4-7

©2011 Bryson R. Payne, Ph.D.

brysonpayne.com

twitter.com/brysonpayne

Leading from the Heart:

15 Character Traits of a 21st Century Leader

A leader is patient. He is not passive, but gives people the time to do things right.

A leader is kind. She is considerate.

A leader is not jealous. He celebrates everyone's victories.

A leader is not boastful. She shares the credit.

A leader is not vain. He values others.

A leader does not dishonor others. She treats everyone with respect.

A leader is not self-seeking. He builds up the people around him.

A leader is not easily angered. She creates a safe fail and try again zone.

A leader keeps no record of wrongs. He forgives.

A leader does not delight in evil. She strives for the greater good.

A leader rejoices in the truth. He is transparent.

A leader protects. She stands up for what is right, the organization, her team, and herself.

A leader trusts. He believes in his people.

A leader hopes. She does not give in to negativity.

A leader perseveres. He keeps moving forward.

Adapted from 1 Corinthians 13:4-7

©2011 Bryson R. Payne, Ph.D.

brysonpayne.com

twitter.com/brysonpayne